Krystal Integrated Services continues to strengthen its presence with key contract wins from Tamilnadu, Kerala and Chandigarh International Airports

- Enhances airport hygiene and security with deployment of skilled personnel
- Strengthens Krystal's presence in the aviation sector with key contract wins

Mumbai, March 04, 2025: Krystal Integrated Services Limited (KISL), India's fastest growing and leading provider of integrated facility management (IFM) services Company, has secured significant contracts for security and facility management services at Chennai International Airport in Tamilnadu, Trivandrum International Airport in Kerala and Chandigarh International Airport. These agreements reinforce the company's position as a trusted partner in ensuring seamless airport operations, security and hygiene facilities.

At Chennai International Airport in Tamil Nadu, KISL will be responsible for the upkeep of T4 Passenger Terminal's MESS. The scope of service includes services like housekeeping, security, property and building management, engineering services, etc., addressing both infrastructural and maintenance-related needs. This is a typical "integrated facility management" scope.

At Trivandrum International Airport in Kerala, KISL has been entrusted with SLA-based Security Services and the deployment of security personnel at the airport terminal. These contracts highlight KISL's commitment to providing highly trained security personnel and robust facility management services, ensuring the highest standards of safety and operational efficiency.

Similarly, at Chandigarh International Airport, KISL has secured a facility management contract focused on sanitization services across key airport areas.

Commenting about these strategic developments, Mr Sanjay Dighe, CEO & Whole-time Director at Krystal Integrated Services Limited expressed, "We are delighted to provide security and facility management services at Trivandrum and Chandigarh International Airports. These contracts wins highlight our expertise in delivering best-in-class security, sanitation, and operational services, ensuring a safe and efficient passenger experience at the airports. Our team remains committed to supporting airport authorities with our deep industry expertise and workforce. With these partnerships, we reaffirm our mission to elevate facility management and security services to global standards, ensuring travellers and airport staff experience a clean, secure, and well-managed environment."

With these recent contract acquisitions, Krystal Integrated Services Limited (KISL) continues to expand its footprint into the aviation sector. The company remains committed to offering integrated facility management and security services of top-notch quality catering to the growing needs of some of India's prominent airports.

About Krystal Integrated Services:
