Analysts bullish on Hyundai India despite weak debut

Buch likely to appear before PAC today

BLOOMBERG October 23

THE INDIAN UNIT of the Korean automaker now has a total of six positive recommendations. Brokerages that are bullish include Nomura Holdings, Macquarie Group and Motilal Oswal Securities. The stock has received just one sell-equivalent rating so far, from Emkay Global Financial Services, and no holds.

Bullish analysts are citing robust growth prospects for India's second-largest automaker. Its shares climbed as much as 6% intra-day on Wednesday, rebounding after their opening-day loss of 7.2%.

Hyundai Motor raised about $3.3 billion in what was India's largest-ever initial public offering. The stock debuted to a cooling market as investor focus shifts to China's stimulus drive.

The IPO saw tepid demand from small investors who were turned off by the parent company getting all of the deal proceeds. The unit's share sale also met with concerns over slowing growth in India's passenger vehicle market.

The average price target forecasts a 13% gain in the stock over the next 12 months
