Board Evaluation Policy ('Policy')

1. Introduction

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 178 of Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act'), the Nomination, Remuneration and Compensation Committee ("NRC") of the Company is required to specify the manner for effective evaluation of performance of Board, its committees and individual directors to be carried out either by the Board, by the Nomination, Remuneration and Compensation Committee or by an independent external agency and review its implementation and compliance.

Further pursuant to the provisions of Section 134 of the Act, a listed company is required to include statement in its Directors' Report indicating the manner in which formal annual evaluation of the performance of the Board, its Committees and of individual directors has been made. In addition, schedule IV of the Act requires the performance evaluation of Independent Directors, while Regulation 17 (10) of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations 2015 ('Listing Regulations') mandates the annual performance evaluation of Independent Directors by entire Board of Directors, excluding the Directors being evaluated. Further Regulation 25 (4) of Listing Regulations requires evaluation of the performance of Independent Directors by the entire Board, taking in to account the review of their performance by the NRC. According, this Policy is formulated in compliance with provision of Section 178 of the Act read along with the applicable rules thereto, schedule V of the Act and the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations 2015 ('Listing Regulations').

The policy is required to be formulated by the NRC of the Company and approved by the Board of Directors.

2. Objective and Scope of the Policy

The Policy has been framed with an objective to:

- a. assess the effectiveness of the Board as a whole and various Committees and to review and improve the overall functioning of the Board.
- b. ensure individual Directors and the Board (including the Committees) as a whole, work efficiently and effectively in achieving their functions.

Individual Board members are assessed on their effective contribution and commitment to their role and responsibilities as Directors.

The Policy shall cover the evaluation of the Board, Committees (i.e. Audit Committee, Nomination, Remuneration and Compensation (NRC) Committee, Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Committee, Stakeholders Relationship Committee, Risk Management Committee, Capex Committee, Tender Committee and Finance Committees, Self-evaluation of Directors and Individual Directors.

3. Key Functions of the Board

As enumerated in the Act and the Listing Regulations, the Board should fulfill certain key functions including:

- i. Reviewing and guiding corporate strategy, major plans of action, risk policy, annual budgets and business plans; setting performance objectives; monitoring implementation and corporate performance; and overseeing major capital expenditures, acquisitions and divestments.
- ii. Monitoring the effectiveness of the Company's governance practices and making changes as needed.
- iii. Selecting, compensating, monitoring and when necessary, replacing key executives and overseeing succession planning.
- iv. Aligning key executive and board remuneration with the long-term interests of the company and its shareholders.
- v. Ensuring a transparent board nomination process with the diversity of thought, experience, knowledge, perspective and gender in the Board.
- vi. Monitoring and managing potential conflicts of interest of management, board members and shareholders, including misuse of corporate assets and abuse in related party transactions.
- vii. Ensuring the integrity of the Company's accounting and financial reporting systems, including the independent audit, and that appropriate systems of control are in place, in particular, systems for risk management, financial and operational control, and compliance with the law and relevant standards.
- viii. Overseeing the process of disclosure and communications.
- ix. Monitoring and reviewing Board Evaluation framework.

4. Board Evaluation and Performance

Board evaluation typically examines the role of the Board, the entailing responsibilities and assesses how effectively these are fulfilled by the Board. The effectiveness of the Board depends on a variety of factors, some of which are derived from the above functions of the Board.

- i. Board Structure: its composition, constitution and diversity and that of its Committees, competencies of the members, board and committee charters, frequency of meetings, procedures.
- ii. Dynamics and Functioning of the Board: annual Board calendar, information availability, interactions and communication with senior executives, Board agenda, cohesiveness and the quality of participation in Board meetings.
- iii. Business Strategy Governance & Monitoring role: Board's role in company strategy; Monitoring of policies, strategy and systems implementation.
- iv. Financial Reporting Process, Internal Audit and Internal Controls: The integrity and the robustness of the financial and other controls, regarding abusive related party transactions, Whistle Blower Mechanism and risk management.
- v. Conflict of Interest: Effectiveness of processes for identifying, disclosing and managing actual or potential conflicts of interest
- vi. Supporting and Advisory Role: Effectiveness of the Board in providing guidance, constructive challenge and strategic advice to the management

- vii. The Chairperson's Role: Effectiveness of the Chairperson in providing leadership to the Board, facilitating constructive discussions, promoting active participation of Directors, ensuring effective decision-making and fostering a culture of openness and accountability.
- viii. Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) Oversight: Effectiveness of the Board's oversight of ESG strategy, sustainability initiatives, climate-related risks and opportunities, and related disclosures.
- ix. Cybersecurity oversight: Oversight of cybersecurity risks, information security, data privacy, technology governance and resilience of the Company's digital infrastructure.
- x. Digital transformation: Oversight of digital transformation initiatives, technology adoption, innovation and their alignment with the Company's strategic objectives.
- xi. Stakeholder engagement: Effectiveness of the Board in overseeing engagement with shareholders and other key stakeholders, including consideration of stakeholder interests in decision-making.
- xii. Culture, Ethics and Values: Oversight of the Company's culture, ethical standards, code of conduct, integrity framework and promotion of responsible corporate behavior.
- xiii. Succession Planning: Effectiveness of the Board in overseeing succession planning for the Board, Key Managerial Personnel and senior management to ensure leadership continuity.

The evaluation of the performance of the Board is essentially an assessment of how the Board has performed on all the above counts.
